Weis accepts position at Austin Energy

TURLOCK - Larry Weis, General Manager and CEO of the Turlock Irrigation District announced today that he has accepted the position as the General Manager for Austin Energy in Texas.

Weis has over 29 years of experience in the utility industry and has led the District for the last 10 years.

“The District has seen a decade of growth and development under Larry’s leadership, and he will be missed,” said Rob Santos, TID Board President.

Weis’ last day with the District will be August 31.

The Board of Directors will meet on Tuesday to consider the matter of an interim general manager to assume the duties of General Manager.
